

Iowa Youths USBC Award Winners

Rylan Edwards has been named the 2025 Chuck Hall Star of Tomorrow.

Chuck Hall Star of Tomorrow

The Chuck Hall Star of Tomorrow Award is presented to male USBC youth members for their accomplishments on the lanes, academic achievement and community service.

The award is given annually to recognize star qualities in male high school seniors or college students who compete in the sport of bowling. The Chuck Hall Star of Tomorrow demonstrates the following qualities - a distinguished certified bowling performance at the local, state, regional, and national levels, academic achievement and extracurricular and civic involvement.

Rylan Edwards has been named the 2025 Chuck Hall Star of Tomorrow. Rylan is a member of the DeWitt USBC youth program. He is completing his senior year at Central DeWitt High School where he ranks first in this class with a 4.0 GPA. His academic class load includes a number of Advanced Placement and Honor classes.

Rylan not only succeeds on the lanes, but he has earned Distinguished Academic Achievement in cross country, soccer, baseball, and basketball. His extracurricular school activities include concert choir, Future Business Leaders of America, and drama.

Rylan earned the rank of Eagle Scout in 2022. He is active in his local church where he is a youth group leader, a member of his church's Mission Committee, and helps with lawn care for church members. Rylan volunteers at Grand Haven Retirement Center where he helps residents with craft and life activities.

Congratulations, Rylan, on being the Chuck Hall Star of Tomorrow Award and earning a $6000 scholarship.
