JOEL A. CARTER
IOWA STATE BOWLING ASSOCIATION
HALL OF FAME INDUCTION
BOWLING SKILLS
MARCH 27, 2004

The Greater Davenport Bowling Association nominates Joel A. Carter of Davenport, Iowa for selection to the Iowa State Bowling Association Hall of Fame.

Joel, age 42, is married to Diane and has a daughter named Christine. Joel is currently manager of the Pro Connection Pro Shop and head mechanic of Bowlmor Lanes.

Starting at age 9 Joel has been a sanctioned bowler. His commitment to bowling has served to promote, improve and encourage bowling in the Davenport area. He is often is willing to give helpful advice to bowlers who are trying to improve their skills, also he is presently a Junior Bowling Coach.

SERVICE

League Secretary- Downtown League for 5 years
Head coach junior bowling- Bowllmor Lanes 2 years
Team captain of the Pro Connection Pro Shop of the Tri City Classic League

AWARDS

1981 Greater Iowa Open Champion
1994 Member Greater Davenport Bowling Association Hall of Fame
1994 Greater Davenport Bowling Association Tournament team champion with record scratch score of 3537
1998 Iowa State team champion Pro Connection Pro Shop
1999 Iowa State team champion Pro Connection Pro Shop
1999 Iowa State Tournament record holder 3571
Tri City Classic League team champion 13 times
3661 series tied the world record
Iowa team game record holder 1356
With brother Mike Carter was twice Brother Champions at Peoria, Illinois

BOWLING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

28 sanctioned 300 games
10 sanctioned 299 games
9 sanctioned 800 series
858 highest sanctioned series
236 highest sanctioned average
1988-1989 became the first bowler in the Greater Davenport Bowling Association to average over 230 for a season
Tri City Classic League attendance record holder for consecutive appearances, 361, from September 1991-2003

We, The Greater Davenport Bowling Association, highly recommend Joel A. Carter for consideration for induction to the Iowa State Bowling Association Hall of Fame.

IOWA STATE
HALL
OF FAME
BOWLING