9) Please tell us why you feel the nominee should be considered for the Iowa State Women's Bowling Hall of Fame:

Since the inception of the State HOF in 1960 and the inclusion of the first female (Phyliss Wheeler - Council Bluffs) in 1963 the Waterloo/Greater Cedar Valley Bowling Association has witnessed a number of remarkable bowlers pass through the local centers.

In order to be elected to the State HOF a higher standard must be eclipsed with the applicant displaying superior skill/talent over an extended period of time.

To date, only four metro women have cleared that hurdle resulting in recognition at the State level for their bowling skill excellence. (Roxie Bush, Linda Eighme, Connie Rommel & Virginia Johnson)

Margene Makinster has been a great contributor to the game while possessing the personality that is enjoyable to be around. She definitely has the skill sets. Her scoring and ability to make the clutch shot has been repeated time after time throughout the years. Margene always brings her "A" game and has competed against the very best for many years at the local, state & national levels. She has demonstrated superior skill at a high level while accumulating 65-championships over her career. Of those, 53 (81.5%) were scratch.

On and off the lanes Margene Makinster fully exceeds the expectations for Hall of Fame candidacy. The members of the Greater Cedar Valley HOF Committee are in unanimous agreement that Margene Makinster possesses the credentials at the local, state & national level. Combined with her 47 year commitment to the game the time is right to add the name of Margene Makinster to that of Iowa State Bowling Hall of Fame. The Greater Cedar Valley fully supports Margene's candidacy.

Respectfully submitted:

Joe Engelkes – Chairman Hall of Fame Committee

Jim Johnson - President – Greater Cedar Valley Bowling Association

Loretta Wander – Manager, Greater Cedar Valley Bowling Association
