IOWA STATE
USBC WOMEN'S BOWLING ASSOCIATION, INC.

HALL OF FAME

2011

MYRTLE "SALLY" REIGHARD

Sue Strasburger will you please escort Sally Reighard to the podium.

Sally has been a member of the ISUSBCWBA, and its predecessor, the Iowa Women's Bowling Association for 46 years.

During many of those years, she has served as a director on the board of the organizations. Sally has served as chairman of all the various committees except for Memorial and for the past 12 years has been the Chairman of the Finance & Budget Committee.

In her local association, Washington Iowa USBC, Sally has served as Secretary-Treasurer for over 30 years. She has received the 10 Year Service Award and the Lo Borschuk Secretary of the Year Award from the ISUSBCWBA/IWBA as well as being inducted into the Washington Hall of Fame.

Sally has been an avid certified youth coach for the Washington youth association for eighteen years and has been the Washington High School bowling team coach since the inception of high school bowling. Sally was also the Secretary-Treasurer of her local YABA, and was a Division Agent for four years.

For over twenty years, Sally has been a Certified Lane Inspector, conducting the annual inspections for the bowling centers.

Writing about bowling and related activities has always been another of Sally's passions. She has been a member of the National Women Bowling Writers for 26 years; and is a member of the Bowling Writer Association of America, and the Iowa Women's Bowling Writers, for which she was secretary-treasurer for many years. Sally has received numerous awards from the writer's clubs of which she holds membership.

Sally has also served USBC by working on the USBC Membership Development Committee.

Sally has accomplished much through her dedication and service to the bowlers.
