Iowa State USBC BA Hall Of Fame to Induct Parrish

Sharon Parrish (Meritorious Service/Ambassador) Burlington, IA, will be inducted into the Iowa State USBC BA Hall Of Fame on June 25, 2022 along with 3 others; Arthur Bacon (Meritorious Service) of Ft Dodge, IA Rich Eighme (Performance) of Waterloo, IA, Shellie Kutsch (Performance/Meritorious) of Dubuque.

Sharon Parrish's name is the epitome of serving at all levels for the sport of bowling. She was instrumental of the merger of the Burlington Women and Men's Associations as well as organizing many events for both youth and adults

Parrish has served the Iowa State USBC BA very well and in different capacities which include; running the state tournament office during the Women's State Tournament in Muscatine, nominating committee, delegate to the Nation Convention 1986-2014 and was a state delegate 1985-2011.

Her tireless work in the Burlington area has been very successful with bring bowlers together, building the sport, volunteer awards from the Burlington Area Bowling Association in 2014 and 2015. Sharon has bowled in over 30 State Tournaments, 24 National Tournaments and numerous Association Tournaments.

Lane Lafler is a Director/Public Relations for the Cedar Rapids USBC BA as well as a contributor to the Cedar Rapids Gazette Sports, the Iowa State USBC BA and IBMA (International Bowling Media Association)